

You Are My Good News

Chorus:

It's the mother and child, it's the face that is aging
It's the shy one who smiled when she learned she was praying
It's the guy on the street, it's the folks in the very back pews.
It's you ... you are my good news.

Verse 1

It is not bigger than you are, it is not out of your reach.
It's in every story that you tell, in every song you teach,
In every smile that you smile, in every step that you trod
You are Good News. You are Gospel. You are the Word of God.(Chorus)

Verse 2

In the way that you listen, in the things that you said
In the way that you bless and break bread.
In the way that hold me, in your encouraging nod:
You are Good News. You are Gospel. You are the Word of God. (Chorus)

Verse 3

You are the hand in a puppet, you a singer of songs,
You are a teller of stories, a righter of wrongs.
You are a beacon in darkness. Look at the light that you brought.
You are Good News. You are Gospel. You are the Word of God.(Chorus)

Verse 4

Let's take a moment to wonder, let's find a reason to smile.
Let's make room for our spirits to play for awhile.
We're on this journey together, so let's bring each other along
Together we're Good News.
Together we're Gospel.
Together we're the Word of God.(Chorus)

Final Chorus:

It's the father and child. It's the face that is aging.
It's the shy one who smiled, when he learned he was praying.
It's the guy on the street. It's the folks in the very back pews.
It's you, you are my good news.
It's you and you and you are my good news.
