

The Beacon Street Beacon

Volume One, Number Three - Fall Edition

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH

Two of Beacon Street's members are changing their status. Kim Manning and Steve Rico, two of our founding members, have decided they would like to become Associate Staff Members.

Be assured that Kim and Steve are by no means leaving Beacon Street. Although no longer involved in the day-to-day management of the group, they will continue to advise and perform with Beacon Street.

Kim and Steve have contributed much to what Beacon Street is today. We literally would not be here without them. We thank each of them for giving so unselfishly of their time and talent as Beacon Street got its collective feet under it and for their constant support and friendship over the years.

This change means we will not see Kim and Steve as often as we've become accustomed to, but the full-time staff and the Board of Directors look forward to seeing them all the more on those occasions that we do work together in the days to come.

Being for the Benefit of BEACON STREET

The October 25th performance of "The Mikado" at Huntington Playhouse will be a benefit for Beacon Street. A reception will be held from 6:00 to 7:00 in the playhouse lounge. Then Beacon Street will perform from 7:00 to 7:30. "The Mikado," Gilbert and Sullivan's famous operetta, will be performed by the Huntington Playhouse beginning at 8:00. Tickets are $25.00. All proceeds will go to Beacon Street. For more details, call Beacon Street at 252-5650.

Internship Program

by Bob Kloos

Several months ago the question of "longevity" was raised by one of our astute board members. At the time, all five of the co-founding staff did not feel as pressed to search out new performers--things had not changed for more than four years! Nevertheless, a committee was formed and details for an internship process emerged.

A format is now in place to guide the assimilation of new staff members over the period of a year. Interested parties will contract with Beacon Street and agree to a concentration of study in a particular art form or two. They will attend meetings and accompany the staff on some of our engagements.

As another phase of this program, some participants may choose simply to become more adept at particular skills. These may remain connected to Beacon Street as "Associate" members.

This will be a new adventure for the staff as well as the interns. We will keep you informed as this new program takes off.
