

The Beacon Street Beacon

Volume Two, Number Four

Winter Edition

TOL TALES

Fr. Geri Tol, left, asks, "Didn't I see you at the Beacon Street Benefit?" If your answer is yes, then you know that the tall Tol acted as emcee for Beacon Street's portion of the program, also featuring Maria "Twinkle" Livers, a ventriloquist's dummy who's no dummy, and the song stylings of our Office Manager Jim Pipik. You also saw a terrific performance of "Do Patent Leather Shoes Really Reflect Up?" by Lake Performing Arts Ministries.

For details see "What's Mime is Yours" on P. 2 by the conspicuously absent Bob Kloos.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE OF THE BEACON

Page 2 January 8 Open House - BS Schedule - What's Mime is Yours

Page 3: Beacon Street's Lent Program: "The Season of Hope"

Page 4: Who Arted? Behind the Mask: A Peer Ministry Retreat with Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary High School

Page 5: Ask Akhi - BS Spotlight on: Board Secretary-Treasurer Suzie Thompson

I