BEACON STREET

performing arts in ministry

The cost for printing this insert for our new T-shirts in color was out of sight. So we want to afford you, our readers, with a creative and therapeutic moment. Kindly retrieve the purple, gold, and teal crayons from the nearest Crayola box and bring this t-shirt to life. The background box on top, two juggling balls, the lower set of triangles in the bottom border, the puppet face, and the whirly on the right are gold. The first, third, and fifth kokopeli backgrounds, the words "performing arts in ministry", the top triangles in the lower border, and the whirly on the lower left are purple. The rest of the backgrounds, the remaining juggling balls, the heart in kokopeli no. 5, and the whirly on the upper left are all teal. Dive in so you know just how classy the new shirts are!
