"But let us remember that Christ became a person of his people, of his time; he lived as a Jew; he labored as a worker in Nazareth, and ever since, he is made flesh in all people. If many have moved away from the Church, it is precisely because the Church has been a little alienated from humanity. But a Church that would feel as its own, all that is human, and would wish to incarnate within itself the sorrow, hope, and anguish of all who suffer and rejoice, that Church would be Christ loved and awaited, Christ present. And that depends on us."

Beacon Street's "We First" anti-bullying campaign goes to the heart of the city. Read about the initiative at Urban Community School on page 4. And become acquainted with "Challenge Day" on page 6, a vibrant national resource that can transform a school. Also, in this issue's "Spotlight," meet board member Dick Fratianne, MD. And don't forget to mark your calendar for Have a Heart, Feb. 11, 2006!
