BEACON STREET newsletter

May 14, 2006

Dear Bob,

Thank you very much for coming to us today, and making the students' experience so special. As I mentioned before, it was gift-pure gift. When we got back to the class to discuss the afternoon, the first thing mentioned was how much the class enjoyed the rap. Next, the comments centered on what they got out of it: compassion (which is what we are discussing in Religion, coincidentally) Wow! One of my quietest students was involved in the bean bag toss - and she immediately piped up about the three requirements. The fact is she seldom shares! Truly Cynthia was touched! And of course, you now know about our "Ed," Sam, with the Dali-esque tool! Clearly, Sam's experience was special.

As a teacher, I found the message for me, too! Again, thank you for coming to Annunciation - St. John and helping us all to celebrate, reflect, and heal.

Peace,

Anna M
